The school board will have company when they meet tonight in the board room at the high school, trustees of down-coast Pfeiffer and Palo Colorado Elementary School Districts. Pfeiffer wanted to annex to Monterey but several weeks ago county counsel said they couldn't because Carmel School District lies between. This week the attorney general in Sacramento also said no.

Pfeiffer and Palo Colorado have to annex to somebody since their children will be shut out of the Monterey High School if Monterey forms a unified school district. Pfeiffer and Palo Colorado have no choice but Carmel, and Carmel has no choice but to take them because the county committee on school district organization has the power to force the annexation, and of course, they would. You couldn't expect the down coast children to go to high school in King City, their only other contiguous district.

We are looking forward to the Monterey County Symphony Concert Tuesday night at Sunset because of Petri and the Liszt Concerto No. 1: boom-di-boom di-boom-di-boom—traaaa, in case you've forgotten.

Under ordinary circumstances, I don't think any concertgoer past the age of 50 would deliberately go out to hear a performance of the Liszt No. 1. Just living that long means we've heard it much too much. For most of us, the first young rapture over the Liszt No. 1 has faded long ago.

Then why, this enthusiasm to hear yet another performance of it? It won't be just another performance. Petri is one of the few fine interpreters of romantic music left to us. A number of gifted and Along lines of gilding the lily, Herbert von Karajan, Salzburg-born symphonic conductor and director of opera, has done much in the past two years to add to the musical scene in Vienna.

This is the opinion of Carl Bensberg, one of the most ambitious of commuters, who makes his winter home in Carmel and his summer quarters in Vienna, thereby following the seasons of music and the sun.

Back again this autumn after what he figures is his twentieth Atlantic crossing, Carl mentioned Karajan's influence as one of the many changes in the Austrian city since the early fifties when Vienna was still sectored and militarily controlled by the Allied powers.

Karajan's principal contribution—he is conductor of the Vienna Symphony, director of the Vienna opera and is closely connected also with La Scala—has been literally to bring La Scala to Vienna for the past two years.

Under Karajan's exchange arrangements, the Viennese company likewise travels to Milan. Karajan's rise to eminence in Europe has been reflected in this country by increased demand for records of his work.

Other popular visiting musical groups to the three-week Viennese summer music festival recently have been the Leningrad and Amsterdam orchestras, according to Bensberg.

Completely aside from music, there's been another big change for Carl Bensberg since he began his dual living arrangements in 1950. In 1955, he met two orphaned brothers, Gerhard and Helmut, and the next year began proceedings, now completed, for adopting them.

Helmut, 17, is serving a four-year apprenticeship to a Viennese dental technician, with plans to join his father later in America.

And Gerhard, a winning nine-year old who alternates between ebullience and shyness, is beginning his second consecutive year at Serra School, which is a mere hop and skip from his dad's doorway across the highway from Carmel Mission.

A fourth-grader, Gerhard admits he shines in his favorite subject, arithmetic, and can click off solutions to complicated problems solved in his head while his schoolmates work away at figures on paper. He has no trouble with English, even though he hadn't reached gymnasium age at which

Point Group Questions Poll, Calls Meeting

There will be an open meeting for Carmel Point residents at Carmel River School in the multi-use room at 4:45 o'clock on Monday, "to learn the actual advantages and disadvantages" to the Point of annexation to Carmel. Harold Arnot will preside.

The meeting has been called by a group of Carmel Point residents, meeting at the home of Robinson Jeffers Monday night,

Planning Commission Formally Recommends Point Annexation

Yesterday afternoon, in regular session, Carmel planning commissioners sent a report to the city council recommending annexation of Carmel Point to the city of Carmel and urging the council to allow Point residents to circulate annexation petitions. They suggested that as soon as such permission is given, an interim zoning ordinance, for the Point be adopted maintaining present Point county zoning.

After annexation, the planning commission would create a modified single residence zoning classification for the area, eliminating present undesirable uses now permitted on the Point and not in the city.

The commissioners said that they favored annexation of the Point because the area shares with Carmel a common physical environment, contributes considerably to the most attractive physical characteristics of the greater community and extends preservation of beach and coastal lands.

Only dissent to annexation was expressed by Point resident John Cunningham who objected to "piecemeal annexation." The annexation of the Point was not to the advantage of the city, he stated, and "would destroy the character of Carmel." He favored waiting till all contiguous areas could become part of the city.

Discussion revealed that Mr. Cunningham was laboring under a misunderstanding. He thought Carmel was initiating Point annexation.

"This is not Texas," planning commissioner secretary L. D. Rose told Mr. Cunningham. "In California the people wishing to be annexed initiate proceedings." Commissioners and Mr. Rose then explained to Mr. Cunningham that Carmel Point residents, (through the Carmel Point Property Owners Association) had asked Carmel city council for permission to start annexation proceedings. The council referred it to the planning which expressed the apprehension that "a small number of people, some not living on the Point, were trying to rush annexation through before there has been time for full and fair discussion."

They doubted that a sufficiently representative group of people had been polled in the recent post card ballot of the Carmel Point Property Owners Association. This poll favored annexation, and as a result, the property owners association directors took the first step in the annexation procedure: formally asked the Carmel City Council at its October 8 meeting for permission to circulate an annexation petition among Point property owners. The council referred their request to the Carmel Planning Commission for study and recommendation. The planning commission took favorable action yesterday. (See story this page).

At the meeting of the dissident group at Mr. Jeffers home Monday, a temporary committee consisting of Mr. and Mrs. John Magee, Mrs. Joseph Stilwell, George E. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. Donnan Jeffers and Mrs. Henry O'Dell, were named to arrange for Monday's open meeting.

Planners Turn Down First Plans Under New Interim Ord.

Carmel planning commissioners yesterday afternoon received a building permit request from Charles G. Stoops for a ten unit apartment development on Mission Street, southeast of Seventh Avenue, with nine off-street parking spaces. This was the first multiple dwelling permit asked for since the planning commission received instructions from the council to consider all future motel-type construction with regard to population density.

Using the new control, commissioners denied the Stoops request. There were too many units for the size of the property they told Paul Bosholm, architect representing Mr. Stoops before the commission. Commissioners also said that insufficient landscaping area was provided for the development; the off-street parking was inadequate. The commission told Mr. Bosholm that such an apartment development might become a motel use under another owner and therefore must be considered with this possibility in mind. They stated that, although 1,000 square feet of site area per unit was not spelled out in the new building ordinance amendment, they preferred this amount of site area for each unit.

Previously in the meeting commissioners had allowed Fred S. Farr a permit to build six apart-

Egon Petri Soloist In Symphony Concert At Sunset Tuesday

Egon Petri, internationally known Dutch pianist, will play the Liszt Piano Concerto No. 1 in E Flat with the Monterey County Symphony Orchestra, directed by Gregory Millar on Tuesday evening in Sunset School Auditorium. The concert, first of the thirteenth Symphony season, begins at 8:30 o'clock.

The program opens with Prelude to Die Meistersingers, Richard Wagner, followed by the Liszt piano concerto with Mr. Petri. After intermission the orchestra will play Variations and Fugue on a Theme by Purcell, Benjamin Britten, Schumann's Symphony No. 4 in D Minor closes the program.

Egon Petri comes to Carmel on Tuesday evening after a concert tour of Europe and conducting master piano classes in Geneva this summer.

Both season and single tickets are available at the Browse Around Record Shop. Single tickets may be purchased at the box office on Tuesday evening.

Kiwanis Reminds Kids To Get Costumes Ready For Party

The Carmel Kiwanis Club completed plans this week for its annual Halloween Party on Sunset School playground on October 31. All children in the community are invited to the free celebration. A gift will be given to every child in costume. Doughnuts, cider and balloons will be distributed.

The grand march starts at 7:00 o'clock. Children will be divided into five age groups: zero to five years, three years to five, six years to eight, nine years to 11 and 12 years through the teens. A special prize will be awarded for the best costume in each age group. Grand prize is a $25 Savings Bond.

OFFICE MANAGERS MEET HERE

One hundred and seventy-five delegates to the National Office Management Association's fall conference are meeting in La Playa Hotel tomorrow through Sunday. Among guest speakers will be Jordan Crouch, executive vice president of the First National Bank of Reno, Nevada, and Guy Browning, director of Stanford's Reading and Study Skills Program.

CARMEL GRID SQUADS AT GONZALES FRIDAY NIGHT

Carmel High's undefeated football squads head for the toughest opposition of the current season this Friday night when they journey to Gonzales High for a double-header with the always-tough Spartans. Fred Rainer's junior-varsity crew tangles with the swift Spartan Babes in a 6 o'clock preliminary tussle and the two varsity clubs answer the referee's whistle at 8:00 o'clock. Although the Spartans are winless in league play this season, they have shown plenty of offense while bowing to San Lorenzo, Gilroy, and Hollister. Coach Clair Burne's hard-hitting eleven outplayed Hollister for most of the game and lost the decision in the final quarter when the big Haybalers were down the starting squad. The Spartans led Gilroy, 12 to 0, halfway through the first period but again ran out of gas late in the game to finish on the short end of a 19-12 score. In Joe Montes and Jim Avecilla, Gonzales boasts two of the swiftest backs in the B-division. Montes was an all-league selection last season and appears certain to repeat on the mythical team this year. Avecilla is faster than Montes but doesn't have the straight-ahead power of the senior halfback. The Spartans operate from a tricky multiple offense which can shoot the single-wing, double-wing, and T-formation at the Padre defense.

The Padre varsity will attempt to counter the Spartan speed with a defensive unit of Phil White, and Bill Hicks, ends; Norman Colman and John Wilkin, tackles; Al Eaker and Van Treat, guards; Larry Dufur and Steve Gann, linebackers; Dennis Peavey and Russ Wise, halfbacks; and Craig Smith, safety. The offensive starters will be Craig Smith, quarterback; Captain Bud Conroy, fullback; Dennis Peavey and Ron Faia, halfbacks; Dave Vincent, center; Mike Marquard, Deen Rowe, and Al Eaker, guards; Norman Colman and Sam Farr, tackles; Bill Hicks and Phil White, guards.

Coach Rainer's Little Padres will go after win number four with Doyle Clayton and Pat Boyle, ends; Toby Edson and Brian LeNeve, tackles; Nick Molitor and Fred Bucher, guards; Paul Rice, center; Frank Mayo, quarterback; John and Mike Draper, halfbacks; and David Hansen, fullback.

Other games in the B-division find Live Oak and Pacific Grove battling for the cellar on the Breaker turf. Both teams are win-hungry but the PG lads appear to have too much power for Ami Leso's charges. A crucial joust is on tap at Hollister where the surging King City Mustangs go for win number three at the expense of the Haybalers. Coach Ernie Piper's single-wing attack has been humming since the Mustang loss to Carmel and Hollister will get a severe test from the blue and white. Gilroy hosts the spirited San Lorenzo eleven and figures to pack too much backfield power for Wayne Richard's small squad.

LIVE OAK NO MATCH FOR PADRES

Carmel High's crisp blocking varsity and junior-varsity football squads rolled through, over, and around the Live Oak Acorns last Friday afternoon to post a 30-6 win in the jayvee joust and a 54-0 runaway in the varsity division. Frank Mayo's clever passing plus the strong running of Mike Draper, Bob Paul, and David Hansen were too much for the little Live Oak jayvees and the Carmel lads built up a quick 18-0 lead in the first quarter. The rugged Carmel line held Acorns to minus yardage on the ground as Brian LeNeve, Toby Edson, and Fred Bucher took turns tossing the ball carriers for huge losses. The Little Padres were on top 24-0 at the end of the first half and picked up another six-pointer in the third period.

Devastating blocking both in the line and downfield opened wide running lanes for the Carmel varsity backs who sprinted for more than 500 yards on the ground. Led by guards Al Eaker, Mike Marquard, and Deen Rowe, Carmel blockers turned in their best performance of the current season. Dennis Peavey led the Red & Gray touchdown-makers as he found the end zone three times. Bud Conroy sliced the tackles for over 160 yards while the pass combination of Craig Smith to Phil White sparked the overhead attack. Top run of the afternoon was turned in by Bob Moore who sprinted 85 yards for an apparent touchdown only to have it called back by a clipping infraction. Moore showed good power as a ball carrier and is a welcome addition to the thin Padre backfield. Big Norm Colman, Al Eaker, and John Wilkin put up a solid defensive front in the Carmel line and throttled the Acorn running attack on the ground. The hosts put together a clever short-passing game which netted them 78 yds. through the air. Operating from a pro-type offense with split ends and a slot back, the Acorns made good on the quick look-in passes in front of the Carmel linebacker's and halfbacks. However, the Padre defense always stiffened when the hosts neared the 30-yard line which was the deepest penetration by the Acorns.

CLEAT MARKS

Monterey Peninsula College dropped its opening league game at San Jose last Saturday night after enjoying a 12-0 lead at the end of the first half. The Lobo touchdowns in the first quarter came easy as Crabb, Lopez, and Smith riddled the Jaguar defense. However, in the second half it was a different game as Coach Fred Silva's charges turned vicious blocking and power running into three touchdowns and an 18-12 victory. The Lobos are at home this Saturday night, hosting the East Contra Costa Vikings in another league game. The Vikings are winless this season but have played topflight opposition in all their games. Parker Pollock, ex-Carmel High griddier now at Humboldt State College, was in San Quintin Prison for a few hours last Saturday. Pollock is a member of the Humboldt junior-varsity football squad which played the prisoners last Saturday afternoon. The collegians found the well-coached San Quintin squad tough to handle and dropped a 20-6 decision to the prisoners. Parker played the whole game against the inmates and reports the sneak, ride, bootleg, and full-back double cross plays baffled his squad. Andy Gray, another ex- Padre, also plays for Humboldt but was on the injury list last Saturday and did not play against San Quintin. The foot has really gone out of football as far as the Carmel Junior-Varsity team is concerned. In four games, Coach Rainer's offense-minded squad has punted only twice. The Little Padres have moved the ball so well that they either score, lose the ball by a fumble or intercepted pass, or are so close to the enemy goal that a punt is not in order. Friday night's game at Gonzales will be the biggest test for the jayvees who are now riding an eleven-game win streak. . . Our Coast Counties Athletic League has gained considerable prestige in Northern California grid circles this season with Santa Cruz rated as the number one team. Coach Larry Seimering's veteran squad knocked over Berkeley, Burlingame, and Bellarmine in practice games and the big ones that weren't beaten by Santa Cruz were handled by the Salinas Cow-boys.

Audubon Screen Tours Start Oct. 30 With Orinoco Film

Nature lovers and outdoor enthusiasts will take a trip to Venezuela to see wildlife in color and action on the screen with the photographer-naturalist Robert C. Hermes of Homestead, Florida, October 30, at 8:00 P.M., at Sunset Auditorium.

Mr. Hermes opens the series of five color motion-pictures offered by the Monterey Peninsula Audubon Society in conjunction with the National Audubon Society. His picture of wild-life on a flower covered ranch in the Orinoco Basin includes an array of birds, the tree-climbing anteater, the strange little peccary, the beautiful Venezuelan deer, red howler monkeys, and other equally interesting "actors" on nature's stage.

Mr. Hermes is one of 33 wild-life photographers and lecturers who present these "Tours" to more than 200 cities. The total national audience is estimated to be 750,000 persons and the number grows each year. The coming program opens the Monterey Peninsula Audubon Society's film-lectures.

Bensberg In Winter Quarters Reports On Vienna Music

languages are studied in Europe.

Bensberg's summertime home is a room he maintains in the apartment of friends so he and Gerhard separate then, Gerhard living in an internat, the boarding house arrangement quite familiar to many European schoolboys. Gerhard's is operated by Servite Sisters.

Summer is also marked by many trips. Carl, unlike most of the 600,000 American tourists in Europe every year, has been in "every corner of Austria." He points out not only Vienna's charm as a home, but its value as a home base. It's a short drive out to the Tyrol, and no more than two days to Barcelona, Amsterdam and many other high spots.

Before 1955, he recalls, traveling was trouble. You had to show a gray card to drive in the Russian zone. You were clocked going in and out and if your car broke down, you couldn't go for help. You were expected to sit in it until the patrol came along.

Biggest building and maintenance improvements in Vienna since the treaty have been in what used to be Russia's sector. Very little improvement went on there under Russian military surveillance.

A veteran of 25 trips to Yosemite and other likely destinations for a scoutmaster during the years when he was one, Carl still does a lot of hiking, as well as driving, no matter which residence he's occupying. His life in Carmel began some 14-years before his Viennese one, in 1936. He was a well-known builder here for many years.

Still another enthusiasm which gets more exercise in Austria than Carmel is Bensberg's wise taste for beer, a palate he must have inherited, he believes, from a grandfather born in Pilsen, Bohemia, acknowledged beer capital of the world.

Nearly every town has a brewery, he says, and nearly every brewery a restaurant so the beer sold is freshly made, a quality too long ignored in this country of bottled, canned products. Austrian beer costs nine cents per foaming, half-liter (slightly more than a pint).

Among other things we could use in this country if we had them: music rooms in homes and more large-capacity auditoriums in towns and cities. Chamber music is presented during the Viennese Music Festival in the music rooms of the larger homes. Many programs are produced simultaneously and it's still hard to buy tickets unless arrangements are made well ahead.

If you plan a trip to Austria, Carl can be of immense help, but see him before early spring, 1959, when the snow melts away, the wild flowers come out on the Tyrolean hillsides, the musicians begin streaming back into Vienna and Carl and Gerhard migrate eastward again. —Raylyn Penney.

Planning Commission Formally Recommends Point Annexation

commission for recommendation.
Yesterday afternoon the commission reported favorably.

The council decides whether annexation petitions may be circulated. Point residents before this file their boundaries with the Boundary Commission, file a notice of intention to circulate petitions with Carmel city clerk and also publish this intention. Before any further proceeding, signatures of twenty-five percent of the registered voters on the Point must be obtained on the circulated petitions.

The post-annexation zoning classification for the Point would be R-1-A single family residence zoning. It would preserve Point large lot sizes and wide setbacks, both greater than those required in Carmel. The R-1-A classification would be a modification of the present R-1 single family residence zoning within the city. The R-1-A zoning would preserve the character of the Point.

For the past several years the officers and men of KMAG have sponsored a Christmas Party for Korean orphans and needy people.

Each year friends from America have been given an opportunity to have a part in this project. You may think that after the years since the war that the time of need is past. However, for those of us who serve in Korea our hearts are touched everywhere we go by the suffering and poverty. There are still thousands of children helpless and homeless. There are orphanages sponsored by American Military Units and church groups but the need is still beyond them.

We are asking you to get together some clothing that your family and friends have grown tired of or outgrown and mail it to our committee.

The party will be held near Christmas but it will take at least 45 days for packages to arrive in the county zoning ordinance, which the planning commission believes should be eliminated after Point annexation are: tract offices, country clubs, private stables, airports, heliports, aircraft landing strips and subdivision sale signs.

The new zoning would limit building height to two stories, 30 feet in height. At present county zoning on the Point requires only that the height of a building be not more than 30 feet.

The post-annexation zoning ordinance would also prohibit the transient use of two or more dwellings in the same ownership, or under the same management, and situated on adjacent lots. At present, on the Point, such transient motel-type use is permitted by the county.

Planning commissioners also stated that new Point zoning should reduce the six square foot for sale sign size presently allowed in the area. They desired that the new ordinance establish design control for any construction on the ocean side of Scenic Drive.

Carmel Planning commissioners also suggested that possible changes in Point zoning be considered after public hearings and other proceedings to discover the attitudes and interests of Point residents as well as the residents of the city.

The Rhorers, Who Came Here First In 1897, Revisit

Mr. and Mrs. George Oxley Rhorer of Laguna Beach paid their annual autumn visit to Carmel last week on their way home from seeing the Van Gogh show in San Francisco. They are members of the Laguna Beach Art Association. Mr. Rhorer made sketches on Point Lobos and in Pebble Beach while he was here. These places both recalled to him childhood memories.

"My mother first brought me here in 1897," he said. "We arrived on the Del Monte Express and Mr. Harper, a real estate agent, met us at the train and took us to the cottage mother had rented for the summer. Later he returned with a buckboard filled with wood. All cooking was done on a wood burning stove.

"Mother purchased a whole salmon, still dripping sea water, for two bits. I have yet to taste as delicious salmon steaks. With my sister and brothers, I gathered gallon lard buckets of huckleberries in the forest.

"Mother took us to Point Lobos in a tallyho drawn by eight horses. It was a day's journey and included a picnic on the rocks. Meadows were a mosaic carpet of wildflowers. Carmel, the art colony, was unknown. There were few houses, the pine forest was dense, and filled me with wonder.

"We spent eight summers on the peninsula. Each year since I have returned to recapture the pleasures of long ago.

"Next year may find Carmel collecting our taxes."

Mrs. Graham

Mrs. Verona May Graham died on October 16 in a local hospital after a brief illness.

She was born in Vancouver, British Columbia, on February 25, 1905. Thirty-two years ago she came to live on the Monterey Peninsula. Recently she was a bookkeeper for the Work Lumber Company.

Mrs. Graham was a member and past worthy matron of the Monterey Chapter of the Order of Eastern Star.

She is survived by her husband, Kenneth M. Graham of Carmel; three sons, Kenneth W. Graham of San Bruno, and Duane and Richard M. Graham of Carmel; her mother, Mrs. Isabel Brown of Seattle, Washington; a brother Elbert Brown of Monterey; a sis-

Carmel And Valley Would Have Unfair Water Costs Share

The Carmel and Carmel Valley areas will pay a greater tax penalty than any other section if the proposed Monterey Peninsula Municipal Water District goes through, Corum Jackson said today. Jackson is Carmel chairman of the Truth About Water Committee opposing the district.

Jackson pointed out that the Carmel and Carmel Valley areas have about 35 percent of the assessed valuation in the district but only about 20 percent of the population.

The City of Carmel, the unincorporated area surrounding the city, plus Carmel Highlands and the Valley have a population of about 17,000 and the proposed water district, as a whole, about 85,000, he said.

The Carmel-Carmel Valley area has an assessed valuation of approximately $35,000,000 and the proposed district, as a whole slightly more than $100,000,000, Jackson continued.

"The result would be that every individual in this area would be taxed more than his share to support the heavy burden of carrying the water district while other more densely populated areas would pay less than their share," Jackson said.

"Of course every area would pay new taxes and that is why we think the proposed district should be defeated," Jackson continued. "But it is particularly important that voters in Carmel, Carmel Valley, Carmel Highlands and the adjacent area realize the tax threat to them."

Mrs. Somers

Mrs. Lesley Somers, former Carmel resident, died on October 14 in Berkeley after a long illness.

During the years she lived here, Mrs. Somers appeared in dramatic productions at both the Forest and Wharf Theaters. Her son, Clay Somers, was associated with the Village Book Shop.

After leaving Carmel Mrs. Somers and her son lived in Majorca. Mr. Somers died there three years ago.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERMON

Every individual's need for spiritual growth and progress will be brought out at Christian Science services Sunday.

Christ Jesus' parable of the talents as related in Matthew (Chapter 25) is presented in the Scriptural passages to be read in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Probation After Death."

A correlative passage from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy declares: "God is not separate from the wisdom He bestows. The talents He gives we must improve" (6:5-7).

The Golden Text is from Matthew (7:21): "Not every one that saith unto me, Lord, Lord, shall enter into the kingdom of heaven; but he that doeth the will of my Father which is in heaven."

Christie Chiller Opens On Hallowe'en At The Studio

Agatha Christie's murder mystery The Mousetrap will open at The Studio on October 31. A chilling drama of a psychopathic killer, the start of its run has been planned for Hallowe'en evening.

The Mousetrap has been playing in London for the past six years, and shows no sign of letting go of its record of being the longest run legitimate play in the history of the English theatre.

Featured in this Carmel production will be David Eldridge as Paravicini, a fascinating and mysterious character out of Miss Christie's imagination. Others in the cast include Sheila Goldes and Clifford Berry.

The Mousetrap will play on Friday and Saturdays throughout November.

MEMORIAL SERVICES FOR MRS. FASSIO

Private memorial services were held in Pacific Grove on October 16 for Mrs. Verna Butler Fassio of Beverly Hills, former Carmel resident, who died on October 8 after a brief illness while on a visit to Lakeport.

BEFORE YOU VOTE: CHECK THIS MISTAKE BY WATER DISTRICT "EXPERTS"

Promoters of the water district scheme are relying on the advice of certain financial "experts."

The report made by these "experts" said that the capital requirements of the district, if formed, would be $12,200,000.

In a similar job of "experting" for the City of North Sacramento, this firm estimated the value of the water system there, as of the end of 1956, at $1,500,000.

The amount actually set as fair value to be paid by North Sacramento for the water company's property in the condemnation proceeding was $2,200,000, as of the end of 1956. CHECK DECISION NO. 57344, PUBLIC UTILITIES COMMISSION OF THE STATE OF CALIFORNIA, DATED SEPTEMBER 15, 1958.

The North Sacramento error in estimating value by the "experts" was 47%.

Here these "experts" estimate $12,200,000 will be needed to start the proposed district in the water business. That's the maximum that present water rates will support, they say. If they have repeated the North Sacramento mistake here, we would face almost a 50% increase in water rates.

Financial advisers who study projects like this usually handle the huge bond issue later for a tremendous fee.

DON'T JOIN THIS GUESSING GAME

Any mistake here will be paid for in taxes, bigger bond issues, higher water rates.

FROM A LIBRARIAN'S NOTEBOOK

Ruth Galvin Thornburg, Librarian
It's been a long time, but here we are again. Let us celebrate, with a bit of creative writing entitled . . .

A FABLE

Once upon a time, a bronchitis germ went for a walk in the basement of the library. There he met a librarian. He promptly assumed an offensive attitude, brandishing his little fists and shouting, "I can lick you and my father can lick your father and . . ." He was right. So, as the White Queen in Alice would say, the Moral of That Is, never go walking in the basement of the library unless you are feeling strong and virus.

End of the Fable.

Speaking from the foot of the creative writing class, shall we talk about the new books in the library? We have three copies of Mr. Gann's new one which he has called The Trouble With Lazy Ethel. Of course we had requests for it before publication, but we are hoping that with three copies you won't have to wait too long for it. We also have Aku Aku by Thor Heyerdahl, on which there were pre-publication requests. In case it has slipped your mind, Aku Aku is about Easter Island. Now you remember!

In the past few weeks we have added four books on anatomy, especially for the artists of the community. Two of them were on anatomy in motion, the one on animals in motion and the other on humans. They are being shelved at the desk because they were quite expensive and we want to keep them with us a long time. You may take them out, but you will not find them on the open shelves. Just ask for them. Two more are just going into circulation. One is rather small and is an Atlas of Human Anatomy by Evans. The other is a somewhat larger book and is entitled Atlas of Animal Anatomy for Artists, by Ellenberger. We need a lot of this sort of thing and never seem to have enough. These four should help. Two books on crafts are Hand Loom Weaves by Tidball, and Coppercrafts and Silver Made at Home, by Kramer. The titles are self explanatory. If you are interested in either of these crafts, by all means have a look at these new books in your field. You have to keep up, you know, or at least keep even.

From time to time, a book comes along for the layman in the field of business and investments. We have a new one called Financial Independence Through Common Stocks, written by Robert Merritt. You might read it before embarking on a voyage of investments, you being the type with money.

A nice thing on upper-cuts and such is entitled Defend Yourself, by Jack Grover. It certainly does no harm to know a little about defending yourself. You never can tell when you will need this information. No doubt practice helps, too.

There are several new novels, including three mysteries. Reading mysteries is a great way to keep your mind occupied while you are waiting out a sick spell, but after reading eighteen of them while in the hospital. I can tell you that they run together and make a blue blur in the mind. No wonder the avid mystery-eaters make a small pencil sign on the end papers of the book to show themselves that they have read that particular one. There's no telling after they have cooled a little. Here are three new ones, and you can have them! Include-me out.

Editor's note:

Pine Cone welcomes back with enthusiasm Librarian's Notebook, and librarian. Everybody missed her bright column in this paper, and herself around the library.

DON'T LET THIS HAPPEN TO YOU!

Who wants to be stuck for a NEW STATE SALES TAX ON FOOD? Or new and higher taxes on Gasoline? Or a new State tax on Homes?

Nobody—of course!

Yet State officials, business economists and tax experts agree that these are the almost certain results of passage of Proposition No. 17—the Monkey Wrench Tax Bill on the November 4 ballot.

No. 17 is called the Monkey Wrench Tax Bill because it would wreck the machinery of State government by its irresponsible tax tinkering.

By reducing the State's chief source of revenue—the sales tax—No. 17 would imperil appropriations for schools, hospitals, aid to needy children and the aged. By hiking California income tax rates to the highest in the nation, No. 17 would drive business from California and threaten job security.

Who'll pay to put the pieces together again if the Monkey Wrench Tax Bill strikes? Middle and lower income bracket people would pay the most—through new and more burdensome substitute taxes at both the State and local levels. Don't let it happen to you!

These, and hundreds of other responsible California organizations agree:

MUSINGS IN A STRANGE CITY

A man dining alone
Looks more solitary than a woman.
He has no defence against loneliness,
No bulwark built stone upon stone:
The hours of waiting, since Eve,
Of all women.

One dusty palm brings sea wind, salt to the lips;
Stone feels cool to the hand, as sea foam drips;
A windowed wall's a cliff where echoes sing;
One sparrow, begging crumbs, a wilder wing.

—VERA T. MARSHALL

THEN YOU CAME

Slow, weary hours,
Gray friars pacing in a solemn row
Beneath gray towers.
How sadly silent, drearily and slow!
Was that an hour? —
That weary waste? — no joy or sparkle in it —
No, 'twas a minute.

And then you came!
And time took up a very different tune.
The sun came out.
I saw the flowers of June —
The birds were singing. Did they sing before?
And time went caroling along its way.

With you came day
And laughing hours and music newly sweet.
'Tis June or May,
Whatever else the calendar may say,
And time is fleet,
On merry dancing feet,
Since you came home today.

ORDINANCE NO. 251 N. S.

AN ORDINANCE ESTABLISHING THE ORDER OF BUSINESS OF REGULAR MEETINGS OF THE CITY COUNCIL

BE IT ORDAINED by the City Council of the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea, as follows:

Section 1. That Part II, Division 2, Section 50, of the Ordinance Code of the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea be amended to read as follows:

"Section 50. That the following shall constitute the Order of Business to be followed in conducting the regular meetings of the Council:

Order of Business

1. Call to Order
2. Roll Call
3. Approval of Minutes
4. Claims and Demands
5. Appearances
6. Ordinances
7. Resolutions
8. Orders in Council
9. Reports
10. Adjournment

Any citizen may arise and address the council on any business especially concerning them or affecting their interests at such time as may be appropriate under the Order of Business; but preference will be given to those who have first presented matters in the form of a written communication or who have personally notified the Mayor of their desire to speak.

The members of the Council shall remain seated while participating in discussion and at all times during any meeting; they shall address their remarks to the Mayor and other members of the Council and not to the citizens who may happen to be in attendance.

The regular order of business may be suspended by a majority vote for any purpose."

Section 2. Effective Date. This ordinance shall take effect thirty (30) days after its final passage and approval.

PASSED AND ADOPTED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF CARMEL-BY-THE-SEA this 8th day of October, 1958.

CERTIFICATION OF CITY CLERK

I, the undersigned, City Clerk of the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea, California, do hereby certify that the foregoing is a true and correct copy of Ordinance No. 251 N. S., which was given its first reading at a Regular Meeting of the City Council of the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea, held on the 3rd day of September, 1958, and finally adopted at a Regular Meeting of the said Council on the 8th day of October, 1958.

I further certify that upon its passage the foregoing Ordinance was signed by the Mayor of said City and attested by the City Clerk thereof.

DATED this 20th day of October, 1958.

ORDINANCE NO. 252 N. S.

AN ORDINANCE INCREASING FILING FEES FOR ADJUSTMENT AND USE PERMITS

THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF CARMEL-BY-THE-SEA DOES ORDAIN AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. That Section 1014, Article 8, Division 1, of Part X of the Ordinance Code of the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea be, and the same is hereby amended so as to require a fee of $12.50 as filing fee to accompany any application for an adjustment permit or a use permit, in lieu of the fee of $5.00 required by said section previous to this amendment.

Section 2. Effective Date. This ordinance shall take effect thirty (30) days after its final passage and approval.

PASSED AND ADOPTED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF CARMEL-BY-THE-SEA this 8th day of October, 1958.

CERTIFICATION OF CITY CLERK

I, the undersigned, City Clerk of the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea, California, do hereby certify that the foregoing is a true and correct copy of Ordinance No. 252 N. ORDINANCE NO. 253 N. S.

AN ORDINANCE AMENDING THE ORDINANCE CODE TO PROVIDE FOR POPULATION DENSITY CONTROL

THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF CARMEL-BY-THE-SEA DOES ORDAIN AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. That Section 987-B of the Ordinance Code of the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea be, and the same hereby is amended as follows:

"SECTION 987-B. No structure of the A to H inclusive, occupancies, as such occupancies are defined in the Building Code, shall hereafter be erected or substantially altered to provide for a business use not carried on upon the building site of such proposed new or altered structures previous to October 31, 1955, unless and until the Planning Commission shall have approved such use in such location as compatible in type of use with the surrounding area. No structure of the A to H, inclusive, occupancies, as such occupancies are defined in the Building Code, shall hereafter be erected or substantially altered unless the appearance of the proposed structure is found to be in accord with the design and coloring of structures in the general area; and unless adequate off-street vehicle parking facilities and/or loading zones shall be provided within the building site of such structures when and if required by the Planning Commission, and unless set-backs, open spaces, provisions for permanent landscaping and density of population, both in the immediate vicinity and in the general area, are considered by the Planning Commission as suitable in view of the proposed use. In determining the adequate off-street parking facilities and/or loading zones required, set-backs, open spaces and provisions for landscaping, the Planning Commission shall base the requirements upon (a) Type of business, (b) Location of site, (c) Size of site, (d) Topography of site, (e) Existing density of permanent-type construction in immediate vicinity, (f) Width and classification of street upon which site abuts. Any resolution authorizing the issuance of a building permit shall specify (a) Type and acceptability of use, (b) Specific parking and/or loading zone requirements, if any, for the site, (c) Approval of the proposed appearance of the structure with such additional conditions or requirements as may be needed to assure conformance with its decisions, (d) Such requirements of set-backs, open space and landscaping as may be required. A copy of the resolution shall be made part of the building permit when issued to the applicant. Any decision rendered under this section may be appealed to the City Council in the same manner as an appeal respecting an adjustment permit as provided in Article 8 of this Division 1, Part X.

This section shall be and become inoperative from and after December 31, 1958."

Section 2. This Ordinance is hereby declared to be an urgency ordinance and shall take effect immediately upon final passage and adoption. A statement of the urgency is as follows:

That it is vital and necessary to the City to amend its interim zoning laws as provided herein, so as to enable the City to complete its Master Plan and Zoning in connection therewith. That, further, it is deemed necessary that that this Ordinance be adopted as rapidly as possible, so as to prevent an influx of new construction which, if permitted, would to a large extent render the within Ordinance ineffective and hamper the adoption of a final zoning ordinance. That it is for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety.

Section 3. This Ordinance shall be published once in the CARMEL PINE CONE CYMBAL, the official newspaper of the City of Carmel-by-the-Sea, within fifteen (15) days after its final passage and approval.

PASSED AND ADOPTED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF CARMEL-BY-THE-SEA the 8th day of October, 1958.

CERTIFICATION OF CITY CLERK

That you may know the truth About Voluntary Unionism or Right to Work - Proposition 18

Many voters have expressed a desire to get the facts about Proposition 18, which is given in plain language in your sample-ballot. We urge you to read it, and the questions and answers here given. The sections referred to can be checked with the text of Proposition 18.

1. Does Prop. 18 abolish labor unions? No. It does not abolish the right of employees to join or organize labor unions. (See Section 1)
2. Does it protect the right of an employee to join a union? Yes. (See Section 1)
3. Does it also protect employees who do not wish to join a labor union? Yes. (See Section 1)
4. May an employer compel his employees to stay out of a union? No. (See Section 1, 3 and 4)
5. Does it permit an employer to force his employees to join a union? No. (See Sections 1 and 4)
6. Does it protect an employee in his right to join a union of his choice? Yes. (See Section 1)
7. Does it prohibit the firing of a union member because he is expelled from the union? Yes. (See Section 6)
8. Does it benefit an employer? No. It is intended to protect and benefit the individual employee. (See Sections 8 and 9)
9. What is meant by Right to Work? Right to Work or Voluntary Unionism, means that an employee may join or not join a union. It means that an employee can not be forced to join a union or any other private organization in order to get a job or hold a job.
10. What does Federal law say about State Right to Work laws? Enactment of State Right to Work laws is authorized by Section 14-b of the Taft-Hartley Act.
11. Does it deny employees their right to strike? No. It does not relate in any way to the right to strike.
12. Are paid vacations and other fringe benefits affected by Proposition 18? No. It does not interfere with a labor union's right to bargain for paid vacations or any other benefits.
13. Has the United States Supreme Court ever ruled on the constitutionality of State Right to Work Laws? Yes. In the Nebraska, North Carolina and Arizona cases, the U. S. Supreme Court ruled that the State Right to Work Laws are constitutional.
14. Do State Right to Work laws reduce union membership? No. Union membership has increased in every one of the states that have Right to Work laws.
15. Do Right to Work laws reduce wages? No. U. S. Department of Labor figures show that wages have increased in all Right to Work states.
16. Do Right to Work laws guarantee a man a job? No. They serve to protect the individual's fundamental right to work without having to join a union.

Samuel Gompers—Founder of the American Federation of Labor said:—"I want to urge devotion to the fundamentals of human liberty—the principles of voluntarism—No lasting gain ever comes from compulsion."

Dinner Honors Scout Volunteers

Leonard K. Firestone, president of Firestone California, will be principal speaker Saturday evening at the dinner honoring adult volunteers who have given exceptional service to the Boy Scouts of America in Monterey, San Benito and Santa Cruz counties. The affair is to be in the San Carlos Hotel, Monterey, starting at 6:30 o'clock.

Carmel residents on the committee responsible for the Recognition Dinner are John Martin, E. M. Seifert, Jr., Joseph Fratessa and Robert E. Ross.

Sigma Xi Ocean Talk Open

The public is invited to be guests, tomorrow evening at 8:15 o'clock, of Sigma Xi, honorary scientific society, in King Hall at the Navy Postgraduate School. Professor Warren C. Thompson, associate professor of aerology and oceanography at the NPGS will talk on Ocean Waves and Sand Beaches. Coffee will be served after post-talk discussion.

Professor Thompson will discuss the nature and formation of waves and the reaction of sand beaches to wave conditions. He will tell where waves form that arrive on the California coast; how high waves become; how fast they travel. Is every seventh wave the largest? Is a question he will answer; also why breakers vary in height. Monterey Peninsula wave conditions will be described. A remarkable film of hurricane waves will be shown.

Professor Thompson has published eight professional papers on ocean waves and marine geology and is currently doing research on the origin of continental shelves.

Wins Scholarship At Cal

Thomas Gaspar of Carmel has been awarded a Newhouse Foundation Scholarship by the University of California, the committee on undergraduate scholarships announced this week. He is a junior student in chemistry on the Berkeley campus of the University. The award is largely based on scholastic achievement and represents "real distinction" according to the University report.

Symphony Preview Friday

Conductor Gregory Millar will discuss music on the program of the first Monterey County Symphony Orchestra concert this season (October 28) at a Symphony Guild meeting tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in All Saints' Parish Hall. Tea will be served following Mr. Millar's talk.

Democratic Fiesta Sunday

The United Democratic Campaign is sponsoring a Fiesta on Sunday afternoon at Riverside Park Trout Farm on Shulte Road in Carmel Valley. The program is planned to entertain the whole family. Children may ride burros, fish for trout or enter a hula hoop contest. Adults are offered swimming, dancing and refreshments. Prizes will be awarded. Wandering musicians and concession stands will add to the fun arranged for all Democrats and their friends. Children under twelve will be admitted free.

Garden Section Lily Talk

Mr. Eric Mayell, expert lily grower, will lecture at the garden section meeting of the Carmel Woman's Club on Monday illustrating his talk with colored slides.

Mr. Mayell came to Carmel four years ago and started to grow lilies on the Mesa as a hobby. He moved to the valley and augmented his hobby. He now sells blossoms and plants to several local nurseries. During his talk Mr. Mayell will explain how to hybridize lily plants. He has graciously offered to donate lily seeds to those who want them. There will be a question and answer period.

During the tea hour following the program, the hospitality chairman, Mrs. Samuel B. Moore, will be assisted by Mrs. Edgar Wood, Mayberry, Mrs. Barbara Murphy, Mrs. Harry Lee Beshore, Miss Lucy Mills, Miss Philippine Creel, Mrs. Eleanor McComish, Mrs. Alexander Cleary and Mrs. C. U. Fonteneau.

Move To Carmel

Mr. and Mrs. George R. Clarke from Long Beach have moved into the house they purchased at the corner of Portola Drive and Del Monte Avenue in Carmel. Mr. Clarke was an automobile dealer in Southern California before retiring several years ago.

Gerald Adams Promoted

Gerald K. Adams, draftsman with the Burde, Shaw and Kearns architectural firm in Carmel, has been promoted to the rank of Specialist Fourth Class in the 6211th Army Reserve unit which trains each week at Fort Ord.

Mr. Adams is a graduate of California Polytechnic College in San Luis Obispo. He served with the 2nd Division, 23rd Infantry for two years.

High Twelve Installation

Carmel High Twelve Club installs officers tomorrow evening at a dinner meeting starting at 6:30 o'clock in the Cypress Club building (Masonic Temple). Arthur Buss, president of the California Association of High Twelve Clubs, will be the installing officer. With Mrs. Buss he is coming from Escalon for the event. Other out of town guests will be High Twelve state officers and officers of the Army Memorial High Twelve Club at Fort Ord. Dinner will be served by the Pacific Grove Chapter, No. 223, Order of Job's Daughters.

Tomorrow evening's affair celebrates the second anniversary of the Carmel High Twelve Club.

Graffs Enjoy Van Gogh Audience

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas S. Graff enjoyed a brief autumn vacation last week in San Francisco, sampling the Bay City's celebrated restaurants, seeing the new shows (among them, Eve Arden in Auntie Mame) and playing the role of tourists by inspecting the Planetarium and sailing around Alcatraz.

Tom, who is Carmel manager of the Golden Bough Cinema, learned the power of motion pictures when he and Geraldine visited the Van Gogh exhibit at the De Young Museum. A museum official told Tom that the Van Gogh paintings brought more than 10,000 visitors to the Golden Gate Park museum the first weekend. It was the largest crowd in the history of the De Young. Museum officials attributed much of the interest to the recent film biography of Van Gogh, Lust for Life, in which many of the most famous canvasses were shown in color. Eavesdroppers, Tom and Geraldine among them, were amused to hear gallery visitors exclaim, "That's the one Kirk Douglas painted..." and comments like, "He was working on that one when Anthony Quinn did so and so..."—references to the cinema Van Gogh, Kirk Douglas, and his painter friend, Gauguin, portrayed by Actor Anthony Quinn.

Geraldine and Tom's daughter, Catherine, three, stayed home in Carmel with Grandma, Mrs. Emma Silva, who enjoys baby sitting.

Randall, Third Gomez Boy

Mr. and Mrs. Salvador Gomez have a third son, Randall Charles, born at the Peninsula Community Hospital on October 13. His birth weight was seven pounds, 14 and one-half ounces. Randall's brothers are John "Ted," 28 months, and Salvador Jr., 15 months old.

Mr. and Mrs. Gomez came to live in Carmel two years ago. Mr. Gomez is a waiter at the Mark Thomas Inn.

Chanslors Return To Carmel

Roy and Elayne Chanslor are back in Carmel "to stay." They have been in Southern California for the past three months while Roy was busy with television script writing and Elayne was composing music for TV programs. Tuesday they were greeting friends in town, having arrived home the evening before.

Nancy Marie Kelley Baptized

Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Kelley of San Francisco brought their daughter Nancy Marie to Carmel last week end to be baptized in the Mission by Father John McSweeney. The ceremony took place at 2:00 o'clock on Sunday afternoon with a reception afterwards at the home of Brigadier General and Mrs. Gerard W. Kelley, the baby's grandparents. Ronald Stoney of Carmel Valley was Nancy Marie's godfather and his sister Susan Stoney was proxy godmother, taking the place of Nancy Marie's aunt Celia Westerman of Hawthorne, New York.

Nancy's father attended Serra School at the Mission when General Kelley was stationed here during the last War. In September General and Mrs. Kelley came to Carmel to live following General Kelley's retirement. Until then he was Chief of Staff of the New York National Guard.

Mock-up Of The Future

City Tax and License Collector Art Plaxton and Mrs. Plaxton drove their daughter Betty Brown and her three children home to Riverside two weeks ago and then visited Southern California attractions. "We survived 104-107 degree temperatures," says Art, "while I had the time of my life at the first Grand Prix road races held in America at Riverside. Top European drivers were there."

The Plaxtons next "cooled off" at Marineland, "a tremendous experience" and then lived nostalgically for a day at Disneyland. "A living section of the past" is how Art describes the 1890 village created by Disney. After hours of relaxed living in another and restful era the Plaxtons left bygone days. They approached the parking lot with the city of Anaheim in the distance. "It looked like a mock-up of the future and not very well done," says Art.

Sunset Science Representatives

Neil Jensen, Fred Pitts and Bruce Duncan, seventh and eighth grade science teachers at Sunset School, and Harvey Bennett, sixth grade science teacher, will be among the 1,000 elementary school science teachers at the fall conference of the Elementary School Science Association of Northern California at King Hall at the Navy Postgraduate School on Saturday. Theme of the conference is A Scientist Looks At The Sea.

Sunset pupils with work on display at the conference are Walt Prowell, eighth grade, showing a resistance to water project; Jeff McKenna, eighth grade, a ham radio transmitter; and a group project, Creating More Thrust, the work of Ken Edward, Chuck Casey and Craig Neikirk.

The public is invited to science conference meetings which start at 9:30 o'clock in the morning. Demonstrations and displays will be at Del Rey School, Seaside.

Initiated Into Honor Society

Jennie Wolter of Carmel Valley, a sophomore at Monterey Peninsula College, was one of 13 new members initiated into Alpha Gamma Sigma, scholastic honor society, last Friday.

Whole Town Expected To Turn Out For Colossal Carnival

A prize stamp collection will be among items offered for sale at the annual Scholarship Carnival at the High School campus on Saturday. Sponsored by students and High School P.T.A. members, the event opens at 11:00 o'clock in the morning and closes at 4:00 in the afternoon.

In the evening, from 8:00 o'clock till midnight, there will be a dance in the gymnasium for students, parents and all interested townsfolk.

Friday noon students will parade through the business district to publicize the Carnival. After the parade, Mayor John Chitwood will crown Carnival Queen Wendy Wiegman and Carnival King Pat Boyle in Devendorf Plaza.

Loyal Wieckhorst, P.T.A. Carnival chairman, and Polly Gann, Girls' League president and student general chairman for the Carnival, hope to raise more money than last year. Carnival proceeds are used for scholarships awarded to deserving seniors at graduation. Last June four scholarships, amounting to $2,000, were given from Carnival funds.

According to Mr. Wieckhorst and Polly, the Carnival is "planned as an all day outing for the family." Cars will be washed, luncheon served and baked goods for the week end offered for sale, freeing parents to enjoy the many games of skill with their children, including Bingo. The popular "white elephant" auction will be repeated this year. Entertainment will be offered including Disney's movie, A World Is Born. Gardens may be replenished from the plant booth and unusual Christmas and other gifts purchased in another section. Caricature portraits will be made and prizes given for all games.

The parade starts at 11:50 o'clock on Friday. Preceded by a motorcycle policeman, students will march through the business district dressed in costumes of the 1890s through 1920s. Cheerleaders and songleaders on bicycles will lead Rally Club members bearing an invitation to the Carnival. Next will come majorettes and the High School band.

After a car carrying the Carnival King and Queen, High School men teachers in sports cars will parade in front of an invitation to the dance with the fire engine close behind. A procession of decorated cars ends the parade. Prizes will be given for the best costume and best car.

Students will eat a picnic lunch in Devendorf Plaza to the accompaniment of music by the band. A rally finishes the Carnival publicity event.

Student Carnival chairmen, in addition to general chairman Polly Gann, are: Janet Fehring, publication; Connie Chedester, publicity; Lucinda Lloyd, parade; Diane Miller, King and Queen contest; Jennie Hill, general layout and materials; Nicki Wilson, prizes; Ciji Ware, dance; Janet Kellogg and Lynne Dufton, finance.

Home In Carmel, And Promoted

Lieutenant Colonel Benjamin B. Kercheval left Army headquarters in Saigon, Vietnam, to return to the United States. While waiting at the airport for his flight to Honolulu, he was recalled to Army headquarters, told he had received a promotion, and, as a result, flew home as Colonel Kercheval.

He arrived here last week to join his wife and two sons, Berry and Patrick. They have been living here for a year while Colonel Kercheval was in Saigon.

On November 6 the Kerchevals leave Carmel. After a visit in Los Angeles they will go to Fort Sill, Oklahoma, Colonel Kercheval's new station.

Wedding Invitations and Announcements

Brides: Packed inside each Art Point order you will find a complimentary copy of the booklet "And now We are Married!" for your own cherished memories.

For a record of this most important event... from how your romance began, showers, listing of wedding gifts, snap shots, press clippings... never-to-be forgotten honeymoon happiness.

No one can buy this booklet... it is our gift to you; all you do to receive it is to specify invitations and announcements made by Art Point when you order.

Your Wedding

is an occasion of importance... the invitations and announcements should be worthy of the event; see our samples, there are none finer; deliveries, very prompt but order early so that you will have plenty of time for addressing and mailing.

And be sure to call and let our society editor have all the details.

MAGNIFICENT POINT LOBOS VIEW

RARELY do we have an offering like this one. It's an older, but extremely well-built home. It has a beautiful, Spanish-style beamed ceiling living room. It has dining room. It has large, concrete basement. It has 3 bedrooms and 3 baths (a bedroom and bath might be considered servants or guest quarters). The house also has central heat, a tile roof, a sunny patio, a cozy den. AND THERE ARE FOUR LOTS, two of which could be sold without hurting the property at all. PRICE IS ONLY $35,000. Cash to owner. Exclusive.

LARGE TWO-BEDROOM HOME IN CARMEL WOODS

THIS HOUSE HAS AN 18'x24' living room, a large basement room for storage, a double garage, a large, sunny patio (there's even hot and cold running water outside for your barbeque), lots of closet space, wall-to-wall carpeting throughout. The owner is asking $23,500, and will consider sensible terms from a qualified buyer.

SPECTACULAR LOTS

ONE ACRE OF COAST-LINE—This is fabulous! If you are in the market for something spectacular, don't buy ANYTHING until you have seen this magnificent acre at $25,000. You'll probably like it, but even if you don't, you'll have enjoyed seeing it. Exclusive.

ONE-HALF ACRE ON SCENIC DRIVE—Hard to believe that such land actually is available, but we have it! It even has a little private beach. Can be divided into two sites, too. Buy it now, and in two years you can probably sell half of it for what you paid today. Exclusive.

Town Topics ...

October 18, 1958.

Dear Topicer,
John's ten rules for Old Carmelite Looking For are fine, but he forgot one important qualification.

When I came to live here I inquired how to find certain streets. Generally, the person asked would say, "I've lived here (40 or 30 or 20 or 10) years and I still don't know the names of the streets."

I got a map of Carmel and learned the names of the streets. That was 15 years ago. Now if anyone asks me where Pico Street is I say "up towards the statue and over towards the hospital. You know where So-and-So lives. Go up past their house and turn right on the next corner past So-and-So's house and that's Pico."

If I said, "Drive north on San Carlos to Camino Del Monte, follow Camino Del Monte to where Santa Fe Street ends, then turn right and you're on Pico," no one would even know what I was talking about.

Matter of fact, after 15 years in Carmel I wouldn't know myself!

So I suggest that you add to John's Old Carmelite Looking For rules this qualification. An old Carmelite is a person who says, "I've lived here (40 or 30 or 20 or 10) years and I still don't know the names of the streets."

Sincerely yours,
M. L.

We like M.L.'s suggestion because we had a problem with Carmel streets when we came here, too. We were told if we learned which was Ocean Avenue and which was Dolores Street we would be all right. Everything was either north or south of Ocean or east or west of Dolores, the two main business streets.

The trouble was, in our fog and the Carmel fog, etc. we mistook Ocean for Dolores and Dolores for Ocean, then drove blocks on Ocean looking for the post office which was on Dolores. Straightened out, we went into the post office, and were sternly asked to leave by a very straight-standing man with a most severe look and a rough rider hat.

"In Carmel," he said, "no one wears a bathing suit in the post office."

That was Town Marshal Gus Englund and 25 years ago.

Planners Turn Down First Plans Under New Interim Ord.

ments with four off-street parking places. Questioned by Rear Admiral C. W. Fisher as to why they permitted only four parking spaces to six units for the Farr building, commissioners explained these were large apartments for residential use. They favored such multiple dwelling construction in Carmel. They were willing to waive parking requirements for this type of construction and were making a survey of such use. Indications seemed to be, so far, that persons residing permanently in multiple dwellings close to the business district, did so because they do not use automobiles. They would also eliminate some parking requirements in favor of more landscaping space, commissioners said.

Mr. Bosholtz referred to this decision after his consultation with the commission about the Stoops development. "As a citizen," he stated, "I approve of more landscaping and less off-street parking. It is a wise thing for Carmel."

Other routine business of the planning commission yesterday afternoon was to grant All Saints' Episcopal Church a permit to display an identification sign at the church's Lincoln Street entrance; Richard Catlin was allowed to change the front balcony elevation of his motel at Mission and Third Streets. Fred Leidig may add a storage area and rest rooms to Pereira's restaurant on San Carlos Street. Anthony Vasconcellos' request to add a store addition to his existing Carmel Glass Company building at Junipero and Third was held over until color could be approved. The color designated with plans was not definite enough for the commission to grant a permit.

C. P. Kimball may rebuild exterior stairs at the Travellers Lodge on San Carlos Street and Robert Ross may remodel the interior of his real estate office on Dolores Street, commissioners decided.

The city tree planting program has been augmented by 15 recommendations from citizens for trees in 45 locations, a Public Improvements Committee report stated. The 450 tree planting program starts this winter.

Because of holidays during November and December commissioners decided they will meet for study session on November 12, regular meeting November 19. The following month they meet on December 10 for study and in regular session on December 17.

Music . . .

skillful concert pianists play romantic music, but that is not the same thing.

The management has neglected to announce the name of the other artist, the triangle player. (Turn of the century joke.)

The proposed Area Humanity and Arts Commission got a new name this week and an organization committee. The latter invites all interested individuals and organization representatives to attend a meeting at the Monterey Library on Wednesday evening at 8:00 o'clock.

The movement got under way last week when Elwood J. Wilson, Monterey Chamber of Commerce chairman, proposed that a commission be formed to encourage the American Symphony Orchestra League to establish their permanent headquarters on the Peninsula and to help them find a site for their auditorium. The League holds its summer workshop at Asilomar, likes the Peninsula and was looking for sites this summer.

The new name of the proposed organization: Council of Arts and Humanities.

School . . .

Stuart Mitchell has worked up a financial study of what the merger will mean to Carmel District. He will present it at tonight's meeting and his findings are: not bad for Carmel since Palo Colorado will be in the package.

The school board spent some money and saved some last week when they decided, Thursday night, to build six instead of three classrooms at Tularcitos, additional cost, $50,000; total outlay, an estimated $101,000. This year's enrollment at Tularcitos went way beyond expectations. Some saving is achieved by building all the classrooms at once. This will fill up the Tularcitos site, and there can be no more construction without additional land.

The board also decided to sink the remainder of its bond money for construction in 30, 60 and 90 day treasury bonds, and $589,770.72 worth were bought Friday. These will yield around $6000 in interest which can be used only to pay off school bond interest, a slight assist to the taxpayer.

Thursday afternoon Harold Geyer beat two other contestants with low bid of $2597 to build a custodian storeroom at River School.

Charles Ransom

Charles Edwin Ransom died on Monday in a local hospital after a short illness. Mr. Ransom had lived in Carmel for 17 years and prior to his retirement three years ago, was linen and fabric department buyer-manager for Holman's department store for 14 years.

He was born on March 24, 1887, in Coshocton, Ohio. He lived in Coshocton until he came to California in 1936. Five years later he moved to Carmel from Los Angeles.

Survivors are his wife, Mrs. Agnes H. Ransom of Carmel; a daughter, Mrs. Peter H. Beck of San Diego; a brother H. S. Ransom of Clearwater, Florida; and two grandchildren.

The Reverend H.M.M. Nicholas of All Saints' Episcopal Church officiated at funeral services for Mr. Ransom yesterday afternoon.

Monterey Woman Victim Of Attack At Doud Creek Beach

Sheriff's deputies are still looking for "Jimmy," an escapee from a Colorado insane asylum, who forced a 37 year old Monterey woman into his car at Pebble Beach gate on Highway No. 1 Tuesday night, drove her to Doud Beach, 18 miles south of Carmel, forced her to strip and raped her, according to the victim's account.

The woman says she was first accosted around 10:00 o'clock in Carmel while she waited for a bus at the corner of Lincoln and Ocean Avenue. When she refused to get in the man's car, he drove away and she decided to walk to Monterey. On highway No. 1 the man drove past her several times and then dragged her into the car. On the drive to Doud Beach he told her his name was Jimmy and he had escaped from a Colorado mental hospital.

After the attack at the beach, the assailant drove away, and the woman spent the night on the porch of an abandoned building. A motorist picked her up in the morning and took her to the Community Hospital. From her confused report, hospital authorities thought that the attack had taken place in Carmel and notified the Carmel police. On questioning her, the police discovered that the crime had occurred outside their jurisdiction and notified the sheriff's office.

On the same night, shortly before the appearance of "Jimmy" at the bus stop, a Carmel mother reported to Carmel police that a man had tried to force her 15 year old daughter into his car as she was going up Ocean Avenue on her way home from the movies.

Police questioned the girl. Her description of her assailant corresponds in general with the woman's description of "Jimmy" but descriptions of the car differ on several essential points.
